WASHINGTON PARK RACING.

An overcast sky and muggy weather materially affected the attendance at Washington Park, but the racegoers took a new lease of life through the absence of the fiery sun, which, sizzling everything for some days, has made of the track a race course upon which a really first class horse would establish new records at all distances.

The entry of Macy in the fifth race caused its breaking up through scratches and a selling affair at one mile and seventy yards was substituted.

The odd distance of six and one quarter furlongs was traversed in the first race, the horses starting from the chute. Abe Furst, because of working three-quarters in 1:14, seven-eighths in 1:28, was backed from 4 to 1 down to 2 to 1, while Our Gertie, the opening favorite, advanced to 16 to 5.

Abe Furst and Tartarian delayed the start. When the flag fell the horses were well enough together, with the exception of Abe Furst, who was several lengths behind the bunch. He ran a grand race, Thorpe keeping at him to the last jump and finishing second, Tartarian winning. The latter, off second to Our Gertie, soon took command and led to the wire. Ferroll was always third. Braw Lad ran a fair race.

April's Lady dodged off in front, but was quickly caught and passed by the favorite, Souchon, who galloped nearly all the way. May Droit showed third on the upper turn, Queen of Song fourth. The latter ran fast the last eighth and secured the place. April's Lady stopped a sixteenth out. Clawson, when coming from the paddock, expressed surprise that Rosa L should be 20 to 1. His mount finished third. Monadour, who was backed by his trainer, Pat Dunne, was standing flat-footed when the flag fell and ran a good race.

Morte Fonse had no difficulty in winning, trailing the first three eighths, then moving up second to Alvarado, who was leading. Here Moncreith was fourth and so he remained. At the mile Morte Fonse and Alvarado ran paired and "War Jig" Murphy offered to bet any part of $500 that Ezell's horse would win. At the last turn he led and came on always in hand. Dorothy III, under the whip, beat Alvarado for the place, paying her backers 5 to 1.

Captain Tilles of St. Louis put Tommy Burns on Don Orsino and bet a lot of money that he would win. The horse was always in a good position behind the leaders, Lone Princess, Digs and Tenole, and made his run just as Libertine went to the front at the betting ring. The pair quickly left the others, and driving home neck and neck, afforded a chance for the exhibition of enthusiasm. Don Orsino lasting the longest and winning.

For the "made up" race Mistral II was a strong favorite the betting centering on him and Joe Clark. Neither was ever dangerous, although Mistral finished third. "Biscuit Billy" said that his horse Nathanson was "short" the other day and that he would now stick it out. Nathanson did as his trainer claimed, going to the front and leading until the last furlong, where Al Fresco got him and took down first money. As the winner forged ahead Leo Mayer cried in dismay: "Can a horse run every day?" This bookmaker had taken from "Doc" a $50 bet at 9 to 1 just a moment before.

Two "sweet ones"—if ugliness is perfection—in Enchanter and Meddler came to the starter's hands in the last race, but Dwyer got the field off splendidly, considering the circumstances, and neither bad actor was left. Mary Black rushed to the front and lasted to the bleaching boards, where Melter—"Hops" Laudeman's horse—always second, came to the front. Mad-rilene had been third up to this point, but Enchanter came through at the rails and in a driving finish beat Melter, while Hindoonet with a rush got the third money. Enchanter was heavily backed.

J. W. Schorr said: "W. Overton is engaged in all the 2-year-old stakes at Saratoga and Morris Park, as also in the Junior Champion Stakes worth $15,000. I think he is well engaged in 3-year-old stakes. I cannot say now whether or not he will be sent east."

It is thought that as Latonia soon closes, the bookmakers there will swell the number at Washington Park.

There was a sprinkle of rain as the horses were at the post the first race, then the sun showed for a few minutes.

Gasperone was killed in a collision with Her Favor while working at Washington Park yesterday morning. The boys were not injured and Her Favor will recover.

Dan O'Leary of baseball fame sought to give Jacob Schaefer a tip on Our Gertie, and in his usual enthusiastic manner exclaimed: "She will win absolutely." The great billiardist had heard the slang "absolutely" applied to the last horse in the race, so he bought a ticket on every starter with the exception of Our Gertie.

John Mackey, one of the best turfmen of America, was a visitor. He has at Joliet some sixty head of yearlings bred in California, and some of these will soon be offered at the Chicago sales, where also will be auctioned off a full sister to Traverser.

A singular feature of the accident in which Gasperone was killed is the fact that both horses were from the same stable and working together. The rider of Her Favor coming from behind sang out "Pull out," instead of this the other boy "pulled in" and so the collision occurred.

D. M. Hogan yesterday bought of William McGuigan, at private sale, the record-breaking horse, Boanerges, and the son of Spendthrift will start to-day in the Midway Stakes, carrying the colors of George M. Poole.

"Kid" Weller, with $15,000, is the largest winner at Washington Park.

PLAUDIT SOLD FOR $25,000.

NEW YORK, July 8.—John E. Madden today sold Plaudit to Sydney Paget for $25,000.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

"Curley" Brown, the crack starter, writes from Buffalo to the editor of the Commercial Tribune that the racing game at Fort Erie is excellent and that the sport is daily growing in favor. There are plenty of horses, and good ones, too, at the Canadian track, and the game is anything but soft. Brown also writes that the coming meeting at Montreal will be backed by a club composed of 400 of the city's best business men, and it promises to be a grand success. The horsemen following the Parmer-Hendrie circuit are well satisfied with their treatment, and the syndicate has made a big success of it.—Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

New York comment is now to the effect that it is settled that Hamburg can stay as well as run faster than any other 3-year-old. That point being favorably solved it is conceded that Marcus Daly owns the undisputed champion racer of the year, and that the great son of Hanover is worth all his cost and more.

E. H., Chicago.—With Fervor out, the odds would necessarily have been much shortened. Possibly from 7 to 10 up to even money. It is a mere matter of guessing, however, with no rules to govern.

A Subscriber, Chicago.—Yes, 7 to 10 a place was against The Roman.

BRIGHTON BEACH FORM CHART.

Winner—Ch. g, 3, by St. Blaise—Soubrette. Start straggling. Won driving. Songster was a good horse and perhaps best. He was lucky and will improve. Watch him. He finished strong. Miss Lynnah was away badly and ran around her field. She finished like a lioness. She is best when fresh, always, but very unreliable. Klepper was probably short. Calculation closed ground steadily. Mainstay is of little account and was overweighted. Watch him, though. Tinge had speed, but stopped to a walk after a fine burst of speed. He doesn't look good. The others had no chance in the big field. Varus was short. He has had legs, too.

Winner—B. c, by Candlemas—Landlady. Start straggling. Won handily. The start destroyed the chances of several horses. Captain Sigsbee appeared to be the best. He is a good looking colt and showed a surprising turn of speed and much improvement. Watch him. He can beat better ones than were in this field. Wales ran an improving sort of a race. Watch him, too. Miles was an easy third. He might be tabbed for the early future. Federal closed stoutly from a bad beginning. Cupid is a fine-looking colt. He ran green and was eased at the end. Was hardly bridgewise. Composer looks like a really good colt. He was evidently short and got away badly. He will win soon. Tab him. Animus, Ben Blue and Somers all ran well. Watch Somers. Magee and Dale showed lots of speed and both were eased up.

Scratched—Mount Clemens, 112.

Winner—Blk c, 4, by Calvados—Dareka. Start good. Won easily. Caldron was never extended. He is a good colt and was a speed wonder today. Her Own ran a fine race in the light of her past. She shows a liking for the track and finished with gameness. It was a much improved race. Lehman was anchored by the weight and sharp early pace. He ran an honest race. It will not do him any good. Howard S can run in lower class. He isn't what he was though he showed speed for a half mile.

Scratched—Domitor, 113; Miss Tenny, 103; Jefferson, 97.

Winner—Ch. m, 6, by Exile—Round Dance. Start good. Won easily. Reel outclassed her field and ran a high class race. She is at her best. Tenny ran up to the mark and finished an easy second. Tripping was short. She got a bad ride, too; was shut off on the first turn. She is good. Watch her. Premier is still unfit, but showed a lot of speed.

Start good. Won easily. Autumn is a good gelding. He appeared to be galloping the first half and looked a sure winner all the way. He is a stayer and game to the core. Ethelbert ran a game race but couldn't concede the weight. He, too, is high class. He was at a disadvantage in pacemaking. Rusher got a bad ride and was not good today. He lacked speed in the first part and was pulled up in the stretch.

Winner—B. f. 4, by Charaxus—Contenta.

Start good. Won easily. Charentus was easily the best. He was lucky, too, and well ridden. He is a much improved horse. Hanlon was an easy second. He got atrocious handling. He ran wide on both turns, and shut Aurum off on first turn. He was correctly disqualified. After the interference Aurum closed a big gap and ran a good race. Glonoine closed a lot of ground from the half. Watch him. He got a bad ride and is evidently a stayer and game. Ray was a very bad horse today.

Winner—Ch. g, 8, by Stratford—Tara.
Post 12 minutes. Start fair. Won driving and staggering; the next three were hard at it. ABE FURST was much the best and ran a grand race. With anything like an equal break he could not have lost. Thorpe was pulling him up when the flag fell. He picked his way after that and twenty yards out was almost on even terms with Tartarian. The early effort told though and the colt weakened right at the end. Tartarian, away flying, always had clear sailing and was extremely lucky. He was a very tired horse at the finish. Ferrroll ran a better race than the figures show. Our Gertie was closing strong. This filly has been sick all spring and is just rounding to. Braw Lad ran a fair race.
Scratched—Candleblack, 113.

Winner—B. f, by Hymar—Tarantella.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second mildly driven. Third and fourth doing their best. Souchon is a good filly and outclassed the field. She got off in front and galloped all the way. April's Lady was killed off trying to race with her. She is not as good as she was early in the spring. Queen of Song met with interference shortly after the start. Considering this she ran a good race, and finished strong. Rosa L. also came fast at the end. Monadour, off poorly, did not run her race. May Droit showed some speed. The latter ran away about a sixteenth in one of the breakaways.
Scratched—Rosavannah, 100.

Winner—Ch. h, 6, by Fonso—Flyer.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a gallop; second cleverly. The other two were driving hard. Morte Fonse was a good horse today. His race was far better than that of Thursday. Thorpe was up, though, and that may account for it. The old horse is heavy headed and Thorpe rides him best. Dorothy III ran a good race. She got the place about as easily as Morte Fonse won. Alvarado II stopped badly after going about nine furlongs. His race was not as good as his last one. Moncreith seemed to be running easily all the way, but when called upon had nothing to respond with.
Overweights—Dorothy III, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. c, 3, by Candemas—Goldie Cad.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a long hard drive of two; third and fourth also driving. Don Orsino ran a good race. He was off none too well and interfered with often. Burns rode a good race. It was the only good ride the colt has had since he has been here. Libertine ran a good race. He looks well and is ready to win. Shields' finish on him was a trifle weak. Lone Princess got away running and just lasted long enough to be third. With better racing luck Carrie F would have been a keen contender. She is no 100 to 1 shot in this company from now on. Tenole had no excuses. He just went to pieces when the pinch came. Throw Dr. Sharp's race out. He was pocketed all the way.

Winner—B. c, 3, by Eolus—Gladiola.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second mildly driven; third eased at the end. Al Fresco galloped all the way. This is an improvement over his last race. It was right up to the colt's notch. Nathanson was heavily backed. He ran a good race and was well ridden. Mistral II was evidently not fit. His race was nowhere equal to his last. Joe Clark hardly ran his race. He was short on speed and seemed dull when called upon in the stretch. Do not tab Teutonna. He can and will do better.
Overweights—Harry Shannon, 4 pounds.

Winner—B. g, 4, by Carnegie—Banana.
Post 6 minutes. Start fair. It was a driving finish between five. Enchanter ran a fine, game race. He was well ridden, too. Barrett got off none too well, but took the short route and saved ground at every turn. He seemed hopelessly beaten at the head of the stretch. Melter was played for a good thing and came near being one. Had Mary Black been out of the race Melter would have won. She killed him off early. The pace was terrific. Mary Black is a speedy filly.

Reiff used her speed recklessly in the first five furlongs. Hindoonet tried to run out in the stretch. Madrilene and Meddler both ran good races. The latter was raced better than the figures show. He looked dangerous at the head of the stretch, but could not get through. Scratched—Afamada, 101; Dunois, 111; High Jinks, 103; Whitcomb, 109. Overweights—Graziella, 31 pounds.
